Copy of a Letter from Sir William Sydney Smith, Knight, Captain of His Majeſty's Ship Tigre, to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated at Acre, the 3d of May, 1799.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to encloſe you Copies of my Letters to Earl Saint Vincent, of the 7th of April and 2d Inſtant, for the Information of my Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty; as alſo a Sketch of the Poſition of the Forces. The Enemy have made Two Attempts ſince Yeſterday Morning to force the Two Engliſh Ravelines, but were repulſed with Loſs. The Works have now Cannon mounted on them, and are nearly completed. We have thus the Satisfaction of finding ourſelves, on the Forty-ſixth Day of the Siege, in a better State of Defence than we were the Firſt Day the Enemy opened their Trenches, notwithſtanding the Increaſe of the Breach which they continue to batter with Effect; and the Garriſon, having occaſionally cloſed with the Enemy in ſeveral Sorties, feel greater Confidence that they ſhall be able to reſiſt an Aſſault, for which they are prepared.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

W. SIDNEY SMITH.

Tigre, Saint Jean D'Acre Bay, April 7, 1799.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordſhip, that as ſoon as the Return of fine Weather, after the Equinoctial Gale, allowed me to approach this unſheltered Anchorage, I reſumed my Station in the Bay with the Squadron under my Orders. I found the Enemy had profited, by our forced Abſence, to puſh their Approaches to the Counterſcarp, and even into the Ditch of the North Eaſt Angle of the Town-Wall, where they were employed in mining the Tower, to increaſe a Breach they had already made in it, and which had been found impracticable when they attempted to ſtorm on the 1ſt Inſtant. The Alliance and Prize Gun-Boats, which had been caught in the Gale, had fortunately rode it out except One; and Captain Wilmot had been ſo indefatigable in mounting the Prize Guns, under the Direction of an able Officer of Engineers, Colonel Phelipeaux, that the Fire therefrom had already ſlackened that of the Enemy; ſtill, however, much was to be apprehended from the Effect of the Mine, and a Sortie was determined on, in which the Britiſh Marines and Seamen were to force their Way into it, while the Turkiſh Troops attacked the Enemy's Trenches on the Right and Left. The Sally took place this Morning juſt before Daylight; the Impetuoſity and Noiſe of the Turks rendered the Attempt to ſurpriſe the Enemy abortive, though in other Reſpects they did their Part well. Lieutenant Wright, who commanded the Seaman-Pioneers, notwithſtanding he received Two Shot in his Right Arm as he advanced, entered the Mine with the Pikemen, and proceeded to the Bottom of it, where he verified its Direction, and deſtroyed all that could be deſtroyed in its then State, by pulling down the Supporters. Colonel Douglas, to whom I had given the neceſſary Step of Rank to enable him to command the Turkiſh Colonels, ſupported the Seamen in this deſperate Service with his uſual Gallantry, under the increaſed Fire of the Enemy, bringing off Lieutenant Wright, who had ſcarcely Strength left to get out of the Enemy's Trench, from which they were not diſlodged, as alſo Mr. Janverin, Midſhipman of the Tigre, and the Reſt of the Wounded. The Action, altogether, ſpeaks for itſelf, and ſays more than could be ſaid by me in Praiſe of all concerned. I feel doubly indebted to Colonel Douglas for having preſerved my gallant Friend Lieutenant Wright, whoſe Life, I am happy to ſay, is not deſpaired of by the Surgeon. We have, however, to lament the Loſs of a brave and tried Officer, Major Oldfield, who commanded the Theſeus's Marines, and fell glorioufly on this Occaſion, with Two of the Men under his Command. Our Loſs in Wounded is Twenty-three, among which is Lieutenant Beatty, of the Marines, ſlightly. The Turks brought in above Sixty Heads, a greater Number of Muſquets, and ſome intrenching Tools, much wanted in the Garriſon. A further Attack on the Enemy's Second Parallel was not to be attempted without a greater Number of Regular Troops. The Return of the Detachment was well covered by the Theſeus's Fire, Captain Miller having taken an excellent Poſition to that Effect.

The Reſult of our Day's Work is, that we have taught the Beſiegers to reſpect the Enemy they have to deal with, ſo as to keep at a greater Diſtance. The Apprehenſions of the Garriſon are quieted as to the Effect of the Mine, which we have beſides learnt how to countermine with Advantage, and more Time is gained for the Arrival of the Reinforcements daily expected.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c

W. SIDNEY SMITH.

Right Honorable Earl St. Vincent, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

Tigre, moored under the Walls of Acre, May 2, 1799.

MY LORD,

THE Enemy continue to make the moſt vigorous Efforts to overcome our Reſiſtance in the Defence of this Place. The Garriſon has made occaſional Sorties protected by our ſmall Boats on their Flank with Field Pieces, in which the moſt eſſential Service has been performed by Lieutenant Brodie and Mr. Atkinſon of the Theſeus, and Mr. Joes, Maſter of the Tigre, who commanded them.

Yeſterday the Enemy, after many Hours heavy Cannonade from Thirty Pieces of Artillery brought from Jaffa, made a Fourth Attempt to mount the Breach, now much widened; but were repulſed with Loſs. The Tigre moored on one Side and the Theſeus on the other flank the Town Walls; the Gun Boats, Launches, and other Rowing Boats continue to flank the Enemy's Trenches to their great Annoyance. Nothing but Deſperation can induce them to make the Sort of Attempts they do to mount a Breach practicable only by the Means of Scaling Ladders, under ſuch a Fire as we pour in upon them; and it is impoſſible to ſee the Lives even of our Enemies thus ſacrificed, and ſo much Bravery miſapplied, without Regret. Our Loſs is as per Liſt encloſed, and we have therein to lament ſome of the braveſt and beſt among us. Captain Wilmot was ſhot on the 8th Ultimo, by a Rifleman, as he was mounting a Howitzer on the Breach: his Loſs is ſeverely felt.

We have run out a Ravelin on each Side of the Enemy's neareſt Approach, in which the Marines of the Tigre and Theſeus have worked under a heavy and inceſſant Fire from the Enemy in a Way that commands the Admiration and Gratitude of the Turks, as it is evident the Flanking Fire produced from them contributed much to ſave the Place Yeſterday. Colonel Phelipeaux, of the Engineers, who projected and ſuperintended the Execution, has fallen a Sacrifice to his Zeal for this Service; want of Reſt and Expoſure to the Sun having given him a Fever, of which he died this Morning; our Grief for this Loſs is exceſſive on every Account. Colonel Douglas ſupplies his Place, having hitherto carried on the Work under his Direction, and is indefatigable in completing it for the Reception of Cannon. I muſt not omit to mention, to the Credit of the Turks, that they fetch the Gabions, Farcines, and thoſe Materials which the Garriſon does not afford, from the Face of the Enemy's Works, ſetting Fire to what they cannot bring away. The Enemy repair in One Night all the Miſchief we do them in the Day, and continue within Half Piſtol Shot of the Walls in ſpite of the conſtant Fire kept up from the Ramparts under the Direction of Lieutenant Knight.

I hope I need not aſſure your Lordſhip that we ſhall continue to do our Duty to the utmoſt of our Power, in ſpite of all Obſtacles; among which, Climate, as it affects Health, and the expoſed Nature of our rocky Anchorage, are the moſt formidable, ſince they are not to be overcome, which I truſt the Enemy are by our Exertions.

I am, &c. &c.

W. SIDNEY SMITH.

The Right Honorable Earl St. Vincent, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty-Office, Auguſt 3, 1799.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Chriſtopher Anderſon, Commander of the Bull Dog Privateer, to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated in the River of Vianna, Portugal, the 11th July, 1799.

I Take the Liberty to acquaint you that on the 7th Inſtant, being in Vigo Bay, I took and deſtroyed Four ſmall Coaſters, having on board empty Pipes from Ferrol to Vigo, and ſent the Crews on Shore in a Fiſhing Boat. On the 9th, coming out of Marim Bay, fell in with the El Juego Spaniſh Schooner Privateer, commanded by Remao Rodrigues Trelles, of Ten Muſkets, Ten Piſtols, and Ten Sabres, manned with Sixteen ſtout Men, of the Burthen of about Ten Tons, quite new and coppered, had come from Ferrol Two Days before, and had not taken any Thing; which Veſſel I brought to this Place.

HIS Majeſty having reviewed the Yeomanry Cavalry and Volunteer Corps of the County of Kent, at the Mote, the Seat of the Right Honorable Lord Romney, Lord Lieutenant of the County, on the 1ſt Inſtant, the following Letter was, by His Majeſty's Command, written to his Lordſhip on the Occaſion, by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

MY LORD, The Mote, Auguſt 1, 1799.

I HAVE His Majeſty's Commands to expreſs the extreme Gratification he has received in reviewing the Volunteer Corps of the County of Kent. Notwithſtanding all the Reports of their good Conduct, Loyalty, and Proficiency in their Military Duties, their Appearance in His Majeſty's Preſence has far exceeded the moſt ſanguine Expectation. I truſt you will communicate to them, in the moſt forcible Manner you can, His Majeſty's moſt cordial Approbation; I confeſs myſelf unequal to the Charge of doing it in Terms ſufficiently expreſſive of His Majeſty's Feelings.

I have it ſpecially in Command from His Majeſty to mention to your Lordſhip, that the Military Appearance of the Volunteer Corps of the County of Kent was but one Ingredient in that heartfelt Satisfaction His Majeſty has this Day experienced in contemplating a Diſplay of thoſe Virtues and Manners which diſtinguiſh the genuine Character of Engliſhmen, and that however much it may be improved, will never be impaired by the Example of the Perſon to whom His Majeſty has committed the Charge of this great and reſpectable County.

The particular Day choſen for this Review naturally brought to His Majeſty's Contemplation the Circumſtances which, in ſecuring the Conſtitution, placed at the ſame Time his Family on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and after a Lapſe of almoſt a Century, during which the ſame Syſtem of Liberty and Law has remained inviolate, the Manifeſtations of Loyalty and Attachment His Majeſty has met with have ſunk deep into his Heart, and made an Impreſſion which never can be effaced.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

HENRY DUNDAS.

THE following Addreſſes from the Mayor, Recorder, and Common-Council of the Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone were preſented to the King and Queen on the 1ſt Inſtant, and were received by their Majeſties in the moſt gracious Manner.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, and Common-Council of your Majeſty's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone, in the County of Kent, humbly requeſt Permiſſion to addreſs your Majeſty on your condeſcending to review, in our Neighbourhood, the Kentiſh Volunteers, aſſociated for the Defence of our King, our Country, Religion, and Laws.

Permit us gratefully to acknowledge, that, under your Majeſty's mild and equal Government, we enjoy every Bleſſing that is the Reſult of ſocial Order; and that impreſſed with a lively Senſe of the Benefits derived from your Majeſty's unremitted Exertions for the Good of your People, and of the glorious Victories obtained by your Majeſty's Arms over thoſe who are Enemies to all Mankind, we hope that Divine Providence will continue to protect your Majeſty and your Subjects, and grant ſuch further Succeſs to your Majeſty's Arms as will enable your Majeſty ultimately to dictate to thoſe Enemies ſuch Conditions of Peace as may be ſafe and honorable to theſe Kingdoms and to Europe.

Until that deſirable End can be obtained, we will exert our beſt Endeavours to ſupport your Majeſty in a War that hath for its Object the Preſervation of the Religion and Laws, the Rights and Liberties of all your Majeſty's Subjects.

That your Majeſty may long reign over a free and grateful People, with Health, Happineſs, and Glory, and that your Royal Conſort and Family may enjoy every Bleſſing, is the ardent Wiſh of your loyal Subjects the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, and Common-Council of your Majeſty's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, and Common-Council of the King's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone, in the County of Kent, humbly requeſt Permiſſion to addreſs your Majeſty on your condeſcending to viſit our Neighbourhood with your Royal Conſort and Family, and to accept our loyal Sentiments, expreſſed in an Addreſs to our moſt Gracious Sovereign recently preſented.

That your Majeſty may long continue a bright Example to your Subjects, and that your Royal Conſort, your Majeſty, and your Royal Family may enjoy every Bleſſing, is the ardent Wiſh of your loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, and Common-Council of the King's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone.

Whitehall, July 26, 1799.

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that ſeveral Accidents have lately happened to ſome of the Powder Works belonging to Mr. John Butts on Hounſlow Heath, and that there is great Reaſon to believe that the Whole or Part of the ſame was wilfully and maliciouſly occaſioned by ſome evil-diſpoſed Perſon or Perſons unknown.

His Majeſty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid malicious Acts, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Perſon who actually ſet Fire to, or by other Means occaſioned the ſaid Calamities,) who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. PORTLAND.

And as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by me, Jn. Butts.

Whitehall, July 23, 1799.

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to His Majeſty, that on Monday the 8th Day of this inſtant July, about Half paſt One o'Clock in the Morning, Mr. William Rutter, Sitter of the Cuſtom-Houſe Boat ſtationed at Lymington, within the Port of Southampton, in the County of Hants, being out upon Duty with Four of his Men in the ſaid Boat to the Weſtward of Hurſt Caſtle, near Mineway, he obſerved a Veſſel coming in from Sea towards the Shore, which, ſuſpecting to be employed in ſmuggling, he ordered his Men to row towards her for the Purpoſe of cutting her off from the Shore: that on coming near the ſaid Veſſel Mr. Rutter diſcovered her to be a Lugger of between Twenty and Thirty Tons Burthen, with Black Canvas Waiſtcloths and Tallowed Bottom, carrying a Tanned Mainſail, White Foreſail, Mizen, and Jib; and about Two o'Clock the ſame Morning when he got within Forty Yards of the ſaid Lugger, near a Place called Beacon Bunny, about Three Hundred Yards from the Shore, he hailed her and enquired what Lugger ſhe was, upon which one of the Crew who was ſtanding by the After-Part of the Mainſail, which had been hoiſted a few Minutes before, aſked "What Boat is that?" and being anſwered that it was the Cuſtom-Houſe Boat, he told Mr. Rutter, that he muſt not come on board but keep off. Mr. Rutter then told the Crew on board the Lugger to haul down their Sails, as he ſhould come on board of them preſently, upon which the ſame Perſon again aſked what Boat it was, and upon being anſwered that it was the Lymington Cuſtom-Houſe Boat, ſome Perſon on board the Lugger, and who was ſtanding near the Afterpart of the Mainſail, immediately fired with a Blunderbuſs or Gun at the Boat, by which Charles Colborne, one of Mr. Rutter's Boatmen, was killed, and William Lyne, another of his Boatmen, was ſeverely wounded in the Right Arm: that Mr. Rutter then requeſted the Perſons on board the Lugger not to fire again, and they were told what had happended to the Cuſtom-Houſe Boat, but no Anſwer being returned, he directed the Remainder of his Men to row off as faſt as poſſible. The ſaid Lugger was afterwards obſerved about Three Leagues to the Weſtward of the Needles, ſteering to the Southward.

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in this Felony and Murder, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one or more of the ſaid Offenders (except the Perſon who actually fired) who ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplices, ſo that any one or more of them may be apprehended. PORTLAND.

Cuſtom-Houſe, London, July, 1799.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms do hereby promiſe a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Perſon or Perſons (except as before excepted) who ſhall diſcover and apprehend, or cauſe and procure to be diſcovered and apprehended, any one or more of the ſaid Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms.

By Order of the Commiſſioners,
J. Hume, Secretary.

To the Honorable Court of Juſtice of the Rivers, and the Dependent Diſtricts of Demerary, &c. &c.

JACOBUS SCHOEMAKER, and S. P. Biſhop, as Adminiſtrators of the Eſtate of the late S. A. Verichuur, humbly repreſent to your Honors, not only that the Inſolvency of the ſaid Eſtate has been fully proved, but alſo that they have no Funds in Hand to cultivate the Plantation belonging to the ſaid Eſtate, ſituate in Maharyka, and called Ons Genoegen; and that the ſame rather goes behindhand for want of a ſufficient Number of Hands, which cannot prove otherwiſe than highly prejudicial to the Concerned.—Wherefore they have reſolved to diſpoſe of the ſaid Plantation by public Sale, to the higheſt Bidder, in purſuance to your Honors' Act reſpecting Inſolvent Eſtates; or the Sale of Effects under Execution. But ſeeing that the ſhort Terms allowed by the ſaid Act will greatly diminiſh the Purchaſe Price, and it is very probable that if this Plantation could be ſold at a Term of Two or Three Years, it would produce a conſiderable Deal more to the Eſtate, and thus prove of greater Security and Benefit to the Creditors at large; but as your Honors' Authority and Sanction is required to do all this, the Petitioners, in their aforeſaid Capacities, take the Liberty to addreſs themſelves to your Honors, to authoriſe them to ſell the ſaid Plantation (after being duly advertiſed) by public Sale, and that upon the following Conditions, viz.

One Fourth Part of the Purchaſe Money at the Sale and Delivery of the Plantation

One Fourth Part one Year after.

One Fourth Part another Year after.

And the remaining One Fourth Part another Year after, together with Intereſt on the unpaid Terms. Or otherwiſe, on ſuch Conditions as your Honors may think more proper and convenient, imploring your Honors' favourable Direction herein. In ſo doing, &c. &c.

(Signed) JACOBUS SCHOEMAKER.
S. P. BISHOP.

On the Back is the DECREE.

The Court authoriſes the Petitioners q. q. to ſell the Plantation Ons Genoegen, mentioned in the before-written Petition, by public Sale, after being duly advertiſed, referring in that Reſpect to their Honors' Placard, dated 20th of May, 1777, and the 29th Article, of the Regulation of the Manner of proceeding therein mentioned, without entering for the Reſt at preſent, upon the Requeſt relating to the Terms therein fixed.

Done in the Court of Juſtice of the Rivers and Diſtrict of Demerary, this 9th of April, 1799, Lowerſtood, (in my Preſence,) was ſigned.

Agrees with the Original, exiſting with the Secretary; quod atteſtor,
